WORKING TOGETHER TO MAKE CORK INCLUSIVE

Watch a series of short films & you'll learn about equality and social inclusion. People often think of 'equality' and 'inclusion' as relevant only to specific groups – 'people with labels' - but a more equal society benefits everyone. Working to make Cork an inclusive city improves life for us all, from our happiness to our health.

These short films explore the lives of people with disabilities, unemployed people, gay, lesbian and transgender people (LGBT), Travellers, immigrants and asylum seekers, older people, and others. They give a good perspective on how we can build a more inclusive society. All welcome. Organised by the Social Inclusion Unit, Cork City Council.
